

Morningside Music Studio Private Lesson Policy

Morningside is committed to creating a positive learning and teaching environment for its students and staff. For this reason, it is important that all students and parents understand and abide by the studio policies as outlined below.

Participation in private or group lessons will be charged on a monthly basis. We encourage weekly lessons as bi-weekly or monthly will be difficult to schedule. Lessons are 30, 45, or 60 minutes in length.

30 min. - $47

45 min. - $70

60 min. - $94

Students wishing to discontinue lessons must give the studio a minimum notice of two lessons. Any lessons paid beyond that will be posted to student's account.

In-home lessons

You may request the teacher come to your home for lesson, In-home lessons will be an extra $5/lesson.

Registration Fee

Morningside accepts music students of all ages and abilities based on availability year-round. There will be a one time $15/family registration fee.

Schedule

Morningside will be closed on major holidays like Thanksgiving, Christmas, July 4th etc., but will be open for on smaller holidays like Patriots Day, Veterans Day etc.. Morningside will be open during school vacation weeks so communicate with your teacher to let them know if you will be traveling.

Cancellations/make-up policy

Teachers must be given at least 24 hrs. notice when cancelling, unless student is ill, to avoid being charged.

Make up lessons for students missing are subject to teacher availability. If your teacher has to cancel lesson, we will offer a sub teacher or they will make it up at a future date.

Weather-related cancellations

Credits will be given if group gets cancelled due to weather. Morningside does not necessarily follow the public or private school weather open/close schedules. In the event of weather, the decision regarding lesson cancellation will be made no later than 12 noon of lesson day. If you feel unsafe to travel you will not be charged for your lesson.
